Captain Howley

I am making an appeal to you, maybe you will be able to do something for me,

I wrote to six PTM^c and received an answer saying I wasn't intitled to anything. Now if you could please tell me. If I am not who is. I lost my only support when I lost my two Brothers. I am not able to support myself. I was working and had to give it up owing to ill health. the pension Board asked me to furnish a doctor certificate I did so But yet they say I am not intitled to any thing now. is that justice.

Hoping you will consider my letter.

I remaine.

Dear Madam:-

With reference to your letter of October 21st., I beg to state that I have interviewed the Board of Pension Commissioners in the matter, and I am informed by them, that at the time your application was considered, you were holding a position as Nurse, and consequently were in a position to be self-supporting, and under their Regulations you are not entitled to Pension.

If, however, your condition of health does not admit of your continuing your work, I would suggest that you communicate further with the Board of Pensions, who will only be to pleased to do whatever they can for you.

Yours truly
