~~Dear Sir~~

in replying to yours of April 11th 22 I might say that my son was lost at sea in the winter of 1921, while on a voyage from U.S.A. to England, I might also say that he was not married and that I am his next of kin. (Mother)

I might also add that he wrote me about two years ago saying that he received your letter just as he was leaving England, and that he would have to wait until he returned before he could communicate with you.
As he was lost on the return voyage you consequently received no reply
