Sir:-

I have the honour to forward herewith copy of letter from Hon. W.W. Halfyard addressed to the Prime Minister relative to the case of Caleb Baker of Clarendville whose two sons were killed in action. Will you please let me have a report on this matter.

General Post Office
St. John's
Newfoundland

May 29th, 1920

Hon. R.A. Squires, K.C.,
Premier & Colonial Secretary

Dear Mr. Squires:-

The bearer is Mr. Caleb Baker of Clareville

Mr. Baker is in very trying and apparently destitute circumstances. He had two sons, one a married man, 31 years of age, and the other an unmarried man, 28 years of age. Both of them were killed in the great war. He now has a wife and practically a helpless family of 4 children depending upon him. He is himself a cripple, his right arm being practically useless. The only thing he can do, is to help his wife in the garden as much as ~~much~~ he possibly can. If there is any case that should be considered by the Pensions Board it is the case of Mr. Baker, who is certainly a sufferer as a result of the loss of his two sons, upon whom he was depending for a livelihood

I quite appreciate that you are almost too busy to read this letter, but I am compelled to ask for your kind consideration in this most deserving case, and use your valued influence with the Pensions Board to see that Mr. Baker's case is properly treated. Some allowance should certainly be made to him, and it requires immediate attention

Will you please order the Pension Board to give this case immediate attention

I am,
Yours truly,

(Sgd) W.W. Halfyard
