Richard McDonnell, Esq., S.M.
Bay St. George.

Dear Mr. McDonnell,

With reference to your letter of March, 16th., I find that a man named Dominic Bennett, son of Arson (Arsene) Bennett of Black Duck Brook enlisted with the Royal Mfld. Regiment on 2nd. September, 1914, and under the regulations then in force, agreed to serve one year. I further find that at the expiration of this term of service Bennett elected to take his discharge, and was accordingly discharged on the 15th. October, 1915, and returned to Newfoundland. Beyond this I have no knowledge whatever of him, and I regret that I am not in a position to give you any further information.

Yours faithfully,

Capt. & Paymaster.

Dear Captain

I am asked to find the whereabouts of one Dominic Benoit (or Bennett as they are now called) who has been away from here for some two years or over. I recruited him in 1914-15 and I believe he first joined our R.N.F. but left after his first year of service (You may remember that all recruits were only enrolled in both arms of our Service at that time for 12 mos only with option to leave at end)

This Chap was home here after serving that time or more I did not see him but heard that he went as a Soldier but did not hear if he joined the Royal Newfoundland Regt or the Canadians. but as he has not been heard of here for a long time (more than 2 1/2² now) I cannot get such information as I require. I may say that a man named Dominic Benoit was in the Canadian Service and was reported as dead, but no particulars to be sure of the identification has reached here, and as name is not plentiful and by all means never heard of outside St Georges, Dominic Benoit not being by any means a plentiful name even amongst the many Benois here (Honor of no other) I will thank you to find if he is now in your Regiment or if he ever was and perhaps you may have means of finding of him if with Canadians or else
