Dear Sir:-

We received a letter from you dated April 15th in which you authorized your wife to draw your War Service Gratuity, and in accordance therewith one payment of $70.00 was paid to Mrs. Benoit. Another letter dated April 17th was received a few days later instructing that no payments from money due you were to be made to any other than yourself. I am forwarding herewith a copy of each letter, and should be glad if you will advise me which we are to act on.

Yours faithfully,

Your letter undated has been duly received in which you were making enquiries concerning your wife's condition. I have to inform you that it is now several weeks since I have seen her and do not know her present address. When she last called she had just recovered from an illness and was apparently all right. She was informed at that time that no further monies were due to her from this Department.

The above named soldier who arrived with the last draft of recruits from Nfld. on the 17th inst. is of French descent. He can neither speak nor read English, and it is impossible to teach him Infantry training. He has had a long experience in lumbering and may be of use to the Forestry Corps. Will you therefore communicate with the O.C. Forestry Corps and ask him if he is willing to take him.
