REPLY

Dated 10th August 1920.191

Please return ORIGINAL and retain DUPLICATE

The above deceased soldier was a Russian seaman before he enlisted in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment. His home was in Riga, Russia; and although he spelled his name B-o-w-m-a-n, it was correctly B-e-a-u-m-o-n-t, and he took the name of Charles only since his arrival in this country, some years ago. He has no relatives in this country, but it is understood from his boarding house mistress that he left a couple of sisters in Russia.

It is requested that you ascertain whether there is a British Consul, or other representative of the Imperial Government in Riga, and connect with him with a view to ascertaining whether any relative of his can be traced. Please advise if you are able to obtain any information, as I have his Memorial Scroll and War Medals to dispose of.

These are in the meantime held by this office

W. T. Kendall
 Lieut.-Col.,
 CHIEF STAFF OFFICER

The Imperial Government have no representatives in any part of Russia, and even if they had, the present disturbed condition of that country would make it impossible to trace the relatives of this soldier. I therefore filled in the personal inscription myself. If at a later date there is any possibility of tracing the next-of-kin I shall do so.

Dear Madam:-

I am forwarding to you herewith under-registered cover a Memorial Scroll, which is intended as a solace for bereavement suffered and as a memento of one who laid down his life for right and freedom. And we are commended by His Majesty the King to forward to you also the accompanying Message.

I should be glad if you will kindly acknowledge receipt of both at your early convenience

Yours faithfully

Lieut-Col.,

Chief Staff Officer

November 23rd, 1916.

Dear Madam,

For some time past the Imperial Government have been making enquiries in relation to those men of the First Newfoundland Regiment who have been reported missing since the action of the 1st July. I very much regret to state, however, that from the correspondence which has taken place, a copy of which I enclose, it is evident that none of them are Prisoners of War in Germany, and the authorities are, therefore, reluctantly forced to the conclusion that all these gallant men, whose names are given in the enclosed list, and one of whom was very dear to you, were killed in that fateful action on the 1st of July.

I desire to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We feel the loss of our loved ones, but it will, no doubt, be some consolation to you to think that he, for whom you now mourn, willingly answered the call of King and Country, did his part nobly, and fell, facing the foe, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. Though he has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory, and his name will be inscribed upon the Glorious Roll of Honor, and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. When the victory is won, and Peace again reigns upon the earth, it will be a comforting thought to you that in this glorious achievement he bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the Grace and consolation of the Great Father of us all at this time.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

I join with my grateful people in sending you this memorial of a brave life given for others in the Great War.

George R. I.

HE whom this scroll commemorates was numbered among those who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardness, faced danger, and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom.

Let those who come after see to it that his name be not forgotten.
