December 22, 1916.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 20th instant, respecting your son, No. 1772, Private George Brinston and in reply would say that it is not in my power to comply with your request and arrange that he be sent home. The matter of granting of furlough to sick or wounded soldiers is one which is entirely in the hands of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment and the proper course would be for your son, should he think himself, by reason of his condition, deserving of furlough, to make application to the Commanding Officer at the Depot at Ayr for such, when I have no doubt his case will receive a just consideration.

Yours faithfully,

Colonial Secretary.
