Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a cablegram from the Record Office, London, intimating that your brother, Private Leighton Bugden, who had been previously reported as missing on the 12th October, has now been unofficially reported as killed in action on that date.

Permit me to express on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy with you at this time. While we all sorrow at the loss of loved ones, yet it will no doubt be some consolation to you to think that your brother loyally answered the Call of King and Country, fought bravely and well and fell with his face to the foe in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. He has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare and now wears the soldier's Crown of Victory. His name will be emblazoned upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. We are proud of our gallant lads. When the victory has been won and Peace again reigns it will be a comfort to you to think that, in this great achievement, your gallant brother bore no small part, and gave of himself even to the uttermost.

I trust that you may have at this time the presence and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With the sincerest sympathy,
Believe me to be,
Your obedient servant,

Mr. John Bugden,
99 George Street.
