Dear Sir,

With reference to our letter of yesterday, kindly note the "Tabasco" is now altered to Wednesday October 6th. The embarkation of passengers will be 5 p.m. No.2 Branch Canada Deck.

If you have one man to send back third class, please let us have the information by return and we shall have pleasure in furnishing tickets when such passenger presents himself here. We, however, have only room for one man in the Crew's quarters and to travel third class.

Yours faithfully,

We are favoured with yours of the 29th. At present the only sailing from St. John's N.F. is the "Tabasco" on October 5th. All her accomodation is full, but if you require it urgently we might be able to arrange with the Captain to take one man in the Forecastle Third Class passenger at £6.15.0.

Originals:-

H.F. P/K.

No Medical History Sheet available, presumably with those taken by 1st. Battalion, and in regard to which the following is an extract from Adjutant's letter dated 19/9/15, received at this Office 5/10/15:-

"A trunk containing medical documents of sorts has been left with the Military Landing Officer, Lanes, to be forwarded to you."

Possibly this is among them.

As indicated in reply to the O.C. Depot's memorandum 32, I understand that Burdell has been paid to date of last Pay Period only, under which circumstances he will be entitled to pay from that date, including 12/Sd., as shown on H.F.P/K.

So far I do not appear to have received any official statement as to his discharge beyond the fact that his time of original engagement has expired, meanwhile I understand his return relates to domestic reasons.

Received and noted.
