Mrs. Burridge,

191 Pte. H. Burridge

Dear Mrs. Burridge:-

With reference to your application for furlough for the above mentioned soldier, I am directed to state that a message has been received in reply to our enquiry stating that furlough, under present conditions, cannot be granted to Hfld., as only men for discharge can be repatriated. However, in view of the statement made by the Governor publicly, before leaving Hfld., it is hoped that Pte. Burridge, who is one of the original 500, will shortly be able to get furlough for a short period home.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

Major, C.S.O.

G.

19th September, 1917.

Dear Madam,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant, and note your desire that your son No. 191, Pte. Hubert Burrige may be granted furlough, for the purpose of visiting his home. Your son's long term of service in the Regiment, and the illnesses and injuries which he has suffered should certainly entitle him to some consideration in the matter of furlough. I would point out, however, that this is not a matter in which I am able to interfere, as it is one entirely in the hands of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment. Your son's proper course would be to make application to that Officer for furlough, and I have not the least doubt that, if circumstances permit, his application will be favourably considered.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. Julia Burrige,

Hon. R. A. Squires

Colonial Secretary.

Dear Sir:

I would like to know if it would be possible to get my son, Hubert Bourbridge, No 191, home on Furlough.

He left with the first contingent in October 1914, and went through the Gallipoli Campaign, where he was, Frankly and had Dysentery and Gaundice. He went to France early in 1916, and was wounded at Beaumont Hamel July 1st 1916. He was sent to France again in December last, and wounded at Steimbeck in August. He is now in England, and I thought it would be possible to get him home on Furlough for a short while. As you will see by the foregoing he has been with the Regiment almost three years, and has seen quite a bit of Active Service.

Trusting you will give this matter your favorable consideration.

Yours Truly,

Julia Burridge.
