Part II. Orders
Cape Ray
Hospital, St. J.

I beg to report that the sweaters and oil stove arrived O.K. and are now in use, and give satisfaction.

No 4579 Pte W. F. Case who had contracted sore throat, was according to instructions sent to Channel to consult Dr Grant.

As he was not quite well enough to travel alone I went along with him, and on the doctor's advice stayed with Pte Case a day, and made arrangements for him to be looked after and have medical attendance. By Dr Grant's order he has already shown signs of improvement and the doctor hopes to have him alright within a week. Pants and Caps for which I sent on a requisition for have not yet arrived.

As these are badly needed by the men, I would be obliged if you would see that these are forwarded
