Dear Sir,

I now insert a few lines concerning Chesely my son, he was called up, and joined 28th July. Since that date he never caught a fish as his time seemed broken, he lost his summer, he was a big expence to me as he came home to be built up. If he wasnt fit for Military service I consider he should have been turned down at first, as then he may be able to go fishing and earn something for his support, it is very hard on me, as the cold winter is approaching.

So I wish to beg of you if no help can be rendered for the coming season.
I also had to pay his fare on Train back and from St Johns. Please send reply soon as convenient and let me know what can possibly be done.

By so doing
you will greatly favor
and oblige
Yours Humbly
George Crish

Dear Sir:-

The above named soldier reported back to the Barracks about a fortnight ago after a lengthy absence from the Regiment. He states that he was given Week-End Leave at home some time in September and during this leave was taken ill and suffered with a very sore hand and that he was under your care practically up to the time he reported back to Barracks.

Will you please let me have particulars of his case and state whether his absence was due to Medical reasons entirely and whether it was with your authority that he stayed at home.²
