Dear Sir,

I hereby make claim for Soldiers Gratuity on account of my two ~~two~~ sons No. 2448 Pte. Geo. W. Collins and No. 2952 Pte. Leo J. Collins both of whom made the Supreme Sacrifice in France 1917.

I understand that all soldiers on receiving their final discharge, received the gratuity and I consider that the dependants of those who sacrificed their lives are justly entitled to a similar consideration.

I would ask you to place this claim on file for future if not immediate consideration. Trusting to receive a favorable reply.

I beg to remain,

Dear Mr. Squires:-

In reply to your letter of Feb. 23rd concerning the case of Mr. James J. Collins who has applied for consideration on account of his sons No. 2448 Private George Collins and 2952 Private L. Collins.

I have taken this matter up with the Board of Pension Commissioners, and they have referred me to the War Pensions Act, 1917, Cap. 38, and para. 2D of that Act which describes a dependent; and to para. 50C of that Act. They state that they have enquired into this case and have been informed that Mr. Collins, the father of these boys, is in receipt of an income in excess of $480.00 per annum; and under para. 2D, dependents in receipt of an income equal to the amount provided for dependents in schedule D shall be deemed to have sufficient income for their maintenance. If Mr. Collins subsequently becomes disabled, para. 50C may then be made to apply.

Mr. J.J. Collins

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your letter of 16th inst. regarding War Service Gratuity on account of your sons No.2448 Pte. Geo. W. Collins and No. 2952 Private Leo. J. Collins; and in reply I would like to say that while your case is appreciated and sympathised with, I regret that nothing can be done for you in the matter of War Service Gratuity, as both your sons are deceased and it is not payable on account of deceased men. This Gratuity is a personal bonus for war service to a soldier himself on discharge; it is paid in monthly installments in order that if he should find it difficult to re-establish himself in civil life, he will not be wholly without maintenance in the meantime.

I trust I have been sufficiently explanatory, and if I have not, I will be glad to communicate with you further at your request.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,

Chief Staff Officer
