I have received a complaint from O. i/c wireless Station that it has been necessary to supply you from time to time while awaiting renewal from Depot.

The Quartermaster informs me that you have been ordered to give plenty of warning when your supply is about to be exhausted in order that renewal can be made before your stock gives out. You will please see that this is carried out as we have no means of finding out unless we hear from you. The necessary provisions can be obtained here and will be forwarded whenever required, but you must let us know a day or so in advance.

I do not know whether there is any long delay at Portugal Cove in forwarding the provisions to your Guard. If there is please let me know the reason for such a delay and how long it takes for goods forwarded from train at Portugal Cove to reach their destination.
