Reference attached, concerning above noted soldier, I have no knowledge of having been approached by the mother concerning her son. Capt. O'Grady states that Mrs. Constantine called at his house about six weeks ago and he told her that he could give no guarantee that her son could be discharged, and that it did not lie with him to bring about his discharge.

L/Cpl. Valentine is 19 years of age and enlisted on May 17th, 1918, and has four brothers all told:

Leo, aged 30, married away from home
Henry, " 26, at sea
Stephen " 21, with Regiment overseas and a half-brother aged 13 years of age at home

He also has three married sisters.
