

MICHAEL DONOVAN.

Adjutant Newfoundland Regiment.

Consult with Captain Carty and arrange for the discharge of the above who is the only son of his mother; and his father is in low spirits about him, as his other son died while in the Royal Naval Reserve.

I have spoken on the telephone to Captain Franklin, but you might arrange with Captain Carty to discharge him with pleasant words before the Swearing In on Wednesday.

Lieut. Colonel.

28 Sept. 1914.