To Sergt Dooley,

With reference to my telegram to you yesterday and your reply thereto. It is proposed to withdraw the guards at present under canvas now that the Cold weather is approaching so I am writing in order to get further particulars and your views on the subject seeing that you are on the spot.

I understand that your guard at present consists of 12 men, 6 of whom do duty by day and 6 by night. Also that the 6 men off duty by day sleep in billets and that the tent is used only for sleeping quarters for the 6 men on duty at night.

Can it be arranged that the guard be reduced to 6 men so that they may be accommodated in billets and not be obliged to use the tent at all I am informed that there are only two beats. One in front of the Table Office and 1 at the Landing <sup>Point</sup> ~~Point~~ of the Cable.

Will you please go into the whole matter and see what can be arranged as I do not wish to have men sleep under canvas longer than is absolutely necessary.

Pending your reply the Guard will continue as at present.

I wish to hear from you on this matter soon as possible.
