Dear Sir:-

Referring to our conversation of yesterday, re my Son Donald Dowden, I now beg leave to take the matter up with you again. He enlisted during the latter part of April without my knowledge or consent, being then and is still between 18 and 19 years old. My reason for worrying you about the matter is that I am an old man, going on 72 years old and he is the only boy I have and I need his help badly on the farm we keep on the Logy Bay Road.

I feel it would be altogether unreasonable to request his withdrawal from the ranks of the Volunteers but under the circumstances, I would deem it a great favor if you could see your way clear to let him free from say 1st. June to 1st. October during which time he will look after the putting in, care of and harvesting the Crop.

As a reference that my statements are correct, I would name Mr. P.J. Kent.

Thanking you for your courtesy and asking the favor of
