FINER BOND

December 22, 1915.

Dear Sir,

It was with extreme regret that I sent you yesterday the official intimation from the Record Office, London, of the death of your son, Lance Corporal Hubert Edgar Ebsary, as the result of wounds received in action. I beg now to tender to you the deep sympathy of the Government and mine own also in this time of sorrow, and I trust the Great Father will give to you and yours at this time His love and comfort.

But while our hearts feel the loss and the sadness of parting, there is some comfort in the thought that our brave lads gave their lives for the establishment of those principles that are most vital to us -- Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. Your gallant lad early responded to the call of King and Country, and bravely faced the foe of common humanity. Though he has laid down his earthly weapons, he has assumed the soldier's crown of victory and his name is inscribed on the glorious Roll of Honour and will be held in fragrant memory by all his countrymen. We are proud of our brave boys and also of our noble unselfish fathers and mothers who so willingly gave up their sons when the call of duty came. I trust that it will be a comforting thought to you, when Peace is once again established, that your dear son had some part in that glorious Proclamation.

With sincerest sympathy, believe me to be

Your most obedient servant,

Mr. Stephen E. Ebsary,
147 South Side.

Colonial Secretary.
