Capt. H. A. Timewell,
Paymaster & Office Records,
London, S.W.

Dear Sir:-

My son, #22 Private John E. Elliott, of the 1st. Newfoundland Regiment is among the missing soldiers who took part in the big push on July 1st.

Up to the time of receiving the news regarding his whereabouts we (the family) had kept writing him regularly, and one of my letters posted about June 15th., contained a postal order which the family circle had sent him as a birthday gift, thinking probably he would be getting a short furlough.

I would be very much obliged if you would kindly get in communication with those who have charge of the Newfoundland Regiment's mail in France and have my son's letters retruned to me.

I feel quite sure that he did not get the letter in question as I received no acknowledgement of same, and beside I do not think 15 days after date of posting ample time for a letter to be delivered to the Regiment in France. Certainly the parcels sent him can be delivered to any of the boys.

Trusting you will give this matter your kind attention, and ³²⁵⁷ thanking you in anticipation.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Mrs. John Elliott

Madam:- Correspondence for 22, Pte. J. Elliott. (Missing).

I have to-day received your letter of the 21st. I am glad to say that the letter containing the postal order for ^{your son} was in safe-keeping in this Office. It, together with five other letters apparently from the same source, are being forwarded to you by registered post this afternoon.

You will understand it is not possible to return all letters addressed to Pte. Elliott to you. Your son had correspondents in this Country, and their letters will be returned to the senders in due course, should no further news be forthcoming regarding him.

I may add that everything possible is being done by this Office to determine whether any of our missing soldiers are prisoners of war, but I regret to state that nothing has yet been heard of your son.

I am,

Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a cablegram from the Record Office, London, intimating that your son, Private John Elliott, had been Killed in Action on the 1st July.

Permit me to express on behalf of the Government as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy with you at this time. While we all sorrow at the loss of loved ones, yet it will no doubt be some consolation to you to think that your boy loyally answered the Call of King and Country, fought bravely and well and fell with his face to the foe in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. He has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare and now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory. His name will be emblazoned upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in ~~gragant~~ memory by all his fellow-countrymen. We are proud of our gallant lads and also of the noble fathers and mothers who so unselfishly gave their boys when the call of Duty came. When the Victory has been won and Peace again reigns it will be a comfort to you to think that, in this great achievement, your gallant lad bore no small part, and gave of himself even to the uttermost.

I trust that you may have at this time the presence and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With the sincerest sympathy,
Believe me to be,
Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.
