Dear Sir,-

Your letter of February 22nd to the Colonial Secretary has been passed to me for attention. In reply I would state that at present I have no knowledge as to whether Private Jas. Ellsworth made a Will or not, and I am informed by the Paymaster at London that it takes something like four months to get a man's affairs straightened up after his death. As soon as I get definite information regarding the disposal of Private Ellsworth's effects I will communicate with you.

For the benefit of the Newfoundland Patriotic Fund, kindly let me have your opinion on the circumstances of Mrs Ellsworth, and return the enclosed form, filled up, to me.

Yours very truly,

Deputy Paymaster.

Dear Mrs. Elsworth:

I beg to inform you that we have received news by mail, from our Pay & Record Office, London, to the effect that your son No. 625 Pte. Jas. Elsworth, of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, was buried at Borderers Ravine Cemetery, 1½ miles North of Salt Lake, Sulva, Gallipoli. (Report Gallipoli 528.1)

November 27, 1915.

Dear Madam,

It was with extreme regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, a message reporting that your son, Private James Ellsworth, had given his life in defence of his King and Country. I desire to express to you, on behalf of the Government as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in your time of sorrow. The loss of our loved ones brings to us pain, and we cannot but feel the parting. There is comfort in the thought, however, that your brave boy so loyally answered the call of his King and Country and gave his life in defence of that which was worth while -- the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Justice. He has not died in vain, and he has laid down his weapons and wears instead the soldier's crown of victory. We are proud that Newfoundland has produced such brave and gallant men and such noble and unselfish fathers and mothers who so loyally have given their boys when duty called. The name of James Ellsworth will be inscribed upon the Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow countrymen. May the Great Father of us all grant you His peace at this time!

With the sincerest sympathy,

I have the honour to be,
dear Madam,
Your most obedient servant,

Mrs. Amelia Ellsworth, Carmarville.

Colonial Secretary.
