Dear Sir

A short time ago I wrote you regarding my brother's allotment money (Pte. R. Fleming 1594) and have not received any answer to it yet. Since writing I have had an interview with Major Rendell who advised me to write you about it. I think it is time I should hear something about it and as my brother signed on for the duration of the war I think I should be entitled to receive his money until the war is over as my parents are dead.

Address
Miss Brides Fleming

Please look up the money he has on the other side and his photo which I sent you the time he was reported missing.

By looking up this matter as soon as you can and letting me know about it you will greatly oblige

Yours respectfully
Brides Fleming

P.S.

Only for Major Rendell whom I sincerely thank I wouldn't be notified yet as to my brother's death.
