November 27, 1915.

Dear Sir,

It was with extreme regret that the Government received from the Record Office, London, a message reporting that your son, Corporal Richard Fewlow, had given his life in defence of his King and Country. I desire to express to you, on behalf of the Government as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in your time of sorrow. The loss of our loved ones brings to us pain, and we cannot but feel the parting. There is comfort in the thought, however, that your brave boy so loyally answered the call of his King and Country and gave his life in defence of that which was worth while -- the principles of Righteousness, Truth, and Justice. He has not died in vain, and he has laid down his weapons and wears instead the soldier's crown of victory. We are proud that Newfoundland has produced such brave and gallant men and such noble and unselfish fathers and mothers who so loyally have given their boys when duty called. The name of Richard Fewlow will be inscribed upon the Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow countrymen. May the Great Father of us all grant you His peace at this time!

With the sincerest sympathy,

I have the honour to be,
Dear Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Mr. Thomas J. Fewlow,
Trinity East.

The Honorable

J. R. Bennett
Col. Sea
St. Johns

Dear Mr. Bennett

I thank you for your wire of the 26th ultims informing me of the death of Corporal R. Fowlow. And I also wish to thank you on behalf of Mr. Thos J. Fowlow your kind letter to him. He is grateful. Your sympathetic letter and that ofaddy Davidson were soothing to the mourning ones in their affliction.

This world is a very sorry house at present to many, and when it will cease to be such is known only to the Almighty.

This is the 3rd inst. I sat down to write to you last night and before I had the second line finished I was called to visit the Rev. J. J. White, Champneys. Within a half hour of my reaching the parsonage there his spirit took its flight. I left his household in a sad state of grief. Another of my parishioners was called to rest last evening.

at six o'clock.

May the deceased ones rest in peace and the mourners be drawn nearer to the Cross by their sorrows

With very kind regards

Believe me

Yours faithfully

Arthur Pittman
