A. W. F. Rendell,
Chief Staff Officer

Dear Sir:-

with reference to B. P. allowances, I hereby wish to state to you my reasons for not accepting furlough when granted. Sir, if you remember I have had a private interview with you on or about the time of my discharge; you told me then, I was not entitled to pay and allowances, owing to a refusal on my own accord.

Sir, when the "first five hundred" was asked and granted permission of leave to proceed home, I was away on six months course when I returned to my Regiment, I was the only one left. Capt. G. Emerson, asked me then if I wished to go. But at that time and for personal reasons, it was impossible for me to take advantage

If the offer granted me, Sir, really I think it awful unfair. If I am not granted allowances for B.P. why was I not asked while attending the six months course?

personally I think I am entitled to have allowances with (Ref) to B.P. furlough.

Hoping you would give my explanation, further consideration, and judge my case accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant
