C.R. 6104

North West River
May 11th, 1922

Col. W.S. Rendell,

Dear Sir:-

I am writing on behalf of James Goudie, late Private in the Nfld. Regiment, who volunteered in the spring of 1918 for this district.

After the cessation of hostilities he and two others, Stephen MacDonald and Charles Michelin, were given passages to Battle Harbour on a steamer that left St. John's on Nov. 24th. Being landed there, some 300 miles from the homes of Goudie and Michelin, they had to board themselves until dogteam travel became possible, & then pay their own travelling expenses home.

I can personally certify that they did not reach home till Jan. 26th, as I met them (still two days march from here) on the 24th.

Goudie understands that an application by McDonald for refund was successful. A Newfoundland School-teacher undertook to see into the matter for him last spring, but no result followed.

From the Labrador man's point of view, it is rather a tax on patriotism to be landed 300 miles from home and left to bear all the expenses subsequent. I know that Goudie would have volunteered three years earlier if it had not been for his mother, who was in a state of senile decay of body & mind, to which his devotion alone brought any relief, till her death. It would be a great favour as well as serving the end of justice, if you could kindly bring this matter to the notice of the right authorities. Knowing the difficulties of Coast travel from seven winters' experience, I should say that a fair settlement would be an allowance of $35.00 for each man for dog-team transport & whatever rate of board and lodging a month you thought reasonable. Goudie, whom I trust, says he landed at Battle Hr. with $130.00 and reached here with about $40.00. That would leave roughly a dollar a day for board. I know Mr. Croucher used to charge at least $2.00 a day, at that time at Battle Hr. The native houses would be cheaper, but they are quite good there. On the road they would certainly get some free hospitality, but I know they had to pay their teamsters as high as $3.00 per day in some cases.

Michelin only lives 12 miles from here, so their expenses would be practically identical.

I have the honour to be
Sir
Your obedient servant

C.R. 6104

Dear Sir:-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 5th containing two cheques, each for $35.00, for James Goudie and Charles Michelin, dated August 29th

These men are now widely scattered on hunting expeditions and I shall not see them before the end of the year

I am morally certain that they landed at Battle Hr. on Nov. 17th, 1918, and I know for an absolute fact that they reached home on January 27th, 1919. This would make $71.00 each. But if you would chance an error of a day at Battle Hr. and sent them $70.00 on my statement, to avoid another day's delay, I can answer for it that they would be well satisfied. Otherwise, would you agree to my satisfying their claims and you could refund me next summer

Yours faithfully (Sgd.). Henry L. Paddon,
J.P.

P.S. Perhaps the latter course would be best as, as they would get considerable free hospitality and would hardly send around single dollars to refund their hosts of a night
