Reference attached — in all cases where exemption has been granted after enlistment, the men concerned are to be treated as conditional enlistments, and, as such, are to be considered as never having actually been on the strength. They should be marked as "released from military service, exemption having been granted on (date) under (class of exemption)."

A form of release should be drawn up stating that the soldier has no claims of any kind upon the Royal Newfoundland Regt, and signed by the soldier concerned.
