

Holloway, Robert P., Regt. No. 0-29

Mentioned in Despatches

London Gazette, June 1st 1917

Sir Douglas Haig's Despatch of April 9th 1917

Has consistently displayed great gallantry and initiative as Battalion Sniping and Intelligence Officer. On 27th of January he was sent to locate the exact position gained by troops who had made an attack. At great personal risk he visited all the positions and brought back most valuable information.
