No. 4733 Ex-Pte. J. House,
British Hr.,
T.B.

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter of 24th inst., relative to War Medal Ribands, and would state that in your letter of March 17th you enquired only of the Victory Medal riband and made no mention of the General Service Medal riband. You stated therein that you had been in France: this statement does not agree with your record of service, which shows that you did not proceed further than the United Kingdom; and you, therefore, were informed that the Victory Medal or riband was not issuable to you. It is noted in your letter that an ex-soldier is known to you who did not proceed to France and yet has been issued the Victory riband. Will you kindly quote his Regtl. number and name, and I will be glad to enlighten you further.

I am attaching hereto an issue of General Service Medal riband, and also receipt which is to be signed and returned please. I might say that this is the second issue mailed to you, and it is presumed by your letter that the first has not been received.

Yours faithfully,

CHIEF STAFF OFFICER

LIEUT. COL.
