Referring to your application for Separation Allowance, I have been directed to inform you that same cannot be granted to you.

Mrs. William Hussey,
38 Cabot Street.

Dear Madam:-

Your letter of recent date regarding a parcel which you sent to No. 2255 Pte. Harold Hussey in March 1917, and which was not received by him, has been duly noted. I regret that this Department cannot give you any information regarding this parcel at this late date. It was not returned to this office after Pte. Hussey's death; and we no longer receive effects of soldiers from our military authorities in London, as all recoverable effects have been received and returned to the next of kin.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,

Chief Staff Officer
