STATEMENT OF PRISONER

1718, Pte. Frank Hynes - Bay L'Argent, F. B.

Enlisted July 21st, 1915.- Proceeded Overseas Oct. 20th, 1915

Company in France - D. Company.

Date & Place of Capture. April 1917 battle of Monchy.

Circumstances of Capture. Wounded in left leg and surrounded.

Details of life and treatment while under capture. Operated on in Douai France. Strapped to a table and cut in left leg about 3 inches long no chloroform or any other method to relieve pain and removed a piece of shell from leg. Then removed to Darmstadt Hospital spent five months there, had to dress my own wounds while there. Removed to Guesseu Camp for one month, then to some place in Prussia I do not remember the name, hard labour in the mines for sixteen months, without anything to eat but $\frac{1}{2}$ lb black bread, and not a drink of any kind but water. While there fifty four Allied prisoners were admitted but only fifteen came out alive, when a prisoner would die they would strip him of all his cloths, and dump the body in a hand cart and away with him. I have seen three bodies dumped in a cart at one time. Made three attempts to escape but recaptured each time. Released on December 2nd, 1918, This is the truth of my ill-treatment while a prisoner in Germany. After my recapture they would brutally beat me about the head with their rifles, and every method of brutality, and last but not least I wish to say I could meet the enemy that wounded me in fair fight on the battlefield with the hand-shake of friendship. I should like to see meet the cowardly brutes that beat my head almost to a pumny with their rifles or any other available weapon they could lay their hands on when I was a helpless prisoner on equal fair play, I feel sure one of us would've left there.

Date & Place of Capture. April 1917 battle of Monchy.

Circumstances of Capture. Wounded in left leg and surrounded.

Details of life and treatment while under capture. Operated on in Quai France. Strapped to a table and cut in left leg about 3 inches long morphine or any other method to relieve pain and removed a piece of skin leg. Then removed to Darmstadt Hospital spent five months there, had my own wounds while there. Removed to Guesseu Camp for one month, some place in Prussia I do not remember the name, hard labour in the sixteen months, without anything to eat but $\frac{1}{2}$ lb black bread, and drink of any kind but water. While there fifty four Allied prisoners died but only fifteen came out alive, when a prisoner would die strip him of all his cloths, and dump the body in a hand cart with him. I have seen three bodies dumped in a cart at one time attempts to escape but recaptured each time. Released on December This is the truth of my ill-treatment while a prisoner in Germany. If my recapture they would brutally beat me about the head with clubs, and every method of brutality, and last but ~~and~~ ^{not} least I could meet the enemy that wounded me in fair fight on the field with the hand-shake of friendship. I should like to ~~see~~ meet the enemy that beat my head almost to a pumny with their rifles with other available weapon they could lay their hands on when I was a helpless prisoner on equal fair play, I feel sure one of us would be the victor.
