Dear Sir,

I beg to forward for your consideration a letter addressed to me by W.B. Jennings, JP M.A., in reference to his boy who has enlisted in the Royal Wiltshire Regiment. Mr. Jennings points out that his son has enlisted and has gone back to finish his term of engagement as teacher with his schoolboard at Grand Falls.

His boy's mother is very sick and has been for some months. She naturally is desirous of seeing her boy before he leaves for overseas. If you could arrange for him to go home for a couple of weeks it will be much appreciated.

by the parents especially the mother who is so anxious to see him.

Trust your military Rules will allow his going home for a two weeks furlough.

Dear Sir

My boy Winfield has volunteered. He has been teaching school at Grand Bank this winter & ~~has~~ after exhibiting has gone back to finish his term, after which he tells us that he is required to return to St. John's & begin drill. Could you arrange for him to come home for a couple of weeks, before beginning drill. His mother is in a poor state of health & like most mothers has been looking forward to the time when the school term would be over & her boy would be coming home again & it is rather hard to be so disappointed. I shall likely be leaving home too about the first part of July & will not have a chance to see him if he should start drilling at the date specified. As I understand there are ~~to~~ sufficient men on hand for all requirements at present. I thought you may be able to do us this favor for which we should all be extremely grateful

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your telegram granting leave of absence to Winfield till the 12th for which please accept our hearty thanks. I am sorry to say that owing to lack of travelling connections he has not yet arrived at home & I fear it will be impossible for him to report at St. John's by the 12th under the present schedule of the Reid Boats & if he happens to be a day or two behind the given time it will be entirely owing to this & I trust if such occurs Adgts. will excuse the delay.

Yours truly W. B. Jennings.

Dear Sir:

I have before me your memo of May 28th, in which you enquire if number 5236 Ex-L/Cpl. W. H. Jennings had served overseas during the last war.

I regret that your memo was not replied to sooner, but according to Mr. Jennings record he did not serve outside Newfoundland during the last war.

Yours truly,

ST. JOHN'S,

Secretary for Public Health & Welfare:

I have an enquiry from No. 5236 Ex-L/Cpl. W.H. Jennings concerning his eligibility for war medals. Will you be good enough to inform me whether the records under your charge show if this man left Newfoundland for overseas service. He states that he enlisted in May, 1918, and it is likely that his service was entirely in Newfoundland.
