As you were good enough to suggest in your letter in reply to ours of 28th July we wrote to the Officer Commanding the 2/1 Newfoundland Regiment at Ayr with regard to the claim against Pte. Windsor. We have a reply stating that Windsor refuses to do anything and denies the paternity of the child. This is in contradiction to his own letters to our Client practically admitting the paternity.

As it is imperative that some assistance should be got to meet the outlay on the child we propose communicating with Windsor's parents. Would you be kind enough to give us his home address in Newfoundland or wherever else it is or tell us which Office, either here or in the Colony, we should apply to for that information?

We are, Sir,

Your obed. servants,
