Dear Sirs:-

"RE THOMAS KEEPING"

We require for the Schooner "ASSOCIATE," of 99 tons, built 1912, a Master to bring her to Portugal, Spain or Italy, with a cargo of fish from Newfoundland, returning here for another cargo, and would thank you to grant Mr. Keeping leave, so that he can take charge of this vessel.

Competent men for this class work are few at present, and we consider that Keeping by going in charge of this vessel, would be doing the Dominion a service equal to, if not greater than, that he could render the Newfoundland Regiment, therefore, would much appreciate your arranging for Keeping to be granted immediate leave.

For your further information would say, that the vessel is now on the West Coast awaiting a Captain, and we wish to send Keeping there at once.

Sincerely trusting this matter can be arranged.

Yours very truly,

Jessie D.
