My dear Howley,
A week or so I received the discharge button which you mailed me and I have to thank you exceedingly for your courtesy in this matter.
It is a great relief to possess one once more.

I have ~~inquired~~^{inquired} from my father that a ~~refusing~~^{refusing} allowance is due me from the Regiment, and I take the opportunity of applying for it. I am not very clear about this matter but I am under the impression that I am within my rights in this application.
My records will doubtless show that I was refused without a pension

I shall be glad to have you put me in possession of the facts of the matter

Yours very truly
