To,

Chief Paymaster

Royal Field Regt

Militia Dept.

St. Johns.

Dear Sir:

On arrival at St. Johns when I got my discharge I was due twenty eight days pay, and did not receive the same up to date as they told me there that this twenty eight day pay was kept back, as it was reported that I got twenty eight day detention which I never had while I was in the Field Regt. I was in the Regt three years & six months, and I received 6 months gratuity money, and I am badly in need of it as my father was paralyzed three months after I left home, and I was his only support, and that left 6 small children unworkable as a father and mother, depending upon me. and, one can imagine what the state of affairs are, and, everything is so high. I wonder if the Regt could help me out, as I understand that a soldier had any one depending upon, would be looked out for when in need.

I trust to hear from you at the first opportunity

I remain your truly.
