Dear Row:

Just a few lines re pension.

If you should be paying before the 15 inst. would you mind sending the letter to my address here instead of the Red Cross Hospital. I left there about three weeks ago and am now enjoying life on my own.

I am feeling fairly fit now and am leaving here on the 15th inst. and moving towards London. ^{if not sending life 15th} so you can hang on to my money as I will be calling at the Pay Office personally before the end of the month.

Things are about their usual here. Mrs Martin Miss Hutchings have been in Bed with colds. I suppose you heard that Mrs H's brother was on the Alencast Castle and as yet no word has been received from him. Remember me to all the Boys.
