Dear Mr. Bennett:-

My son, Private Rupert Morris, No2849, who has been in service for a year and a half and who was wounded in November last, and is now at London, is desirous of getting home furlough.

I do not fully understand the situation, as he signed on till the end of the war. However, considering that his brother, who put in more than two years service, has been recently killed, perhaps leave may be in order for the wounded, lad.

I leave the matter entirely in your hand feeling assured that the best will be done for all concerned.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir,

Kindly excuse the following inquiries.

I have written to Pte Rupert Morris. 2849. 6 Company
3rd Battalion, 1st Newfoundland
B. E. F. France Reg.

Two or 3 times, sent a parcel, and a registered postal packet. I am anxious about this latter, and I find he now tells me to address all letters for him through you. I want to know (please) if you could in any way, direct the packet to its destination. I know you are pressed by the rush of things, but it is just possible that you may know where the article is lying, and could help it on its way. I am so disappointed about that he should not receive it for Xmas. I enclose stamped addressed envelope, and hope you will not be annoyed at this request to help a "lame dog" over a "stile". The address he gave me is presumably correct for it found him when training at Ayr

Yours thankfully (Miss) Carrie Dunn

Ref. Nos. 001

Dear Sir,

We are anxious to know
the whereabouts of Pte. ~~Rupert~~ ~~Morris~~ 2849, 1st Newfoundland Reg.

He is wounded and was at Endell St.
Military Hosp, & Byculla, Highgate.
On Dec 24, he received a railway warrant for Plymouth, intending (we believe) to stay there a short time and then come on to us, as he gave our address to have his letters sent on to us. We have heard no news from him or of him since Dec 27. His cousin in Devonport is anxiously enquiring for him. She also expecting ed him, at about that time.

It seems to me he has met with an accident or lost his memory and is in hospital somewhere.

If you could tell us how to obtain information we should be most obliged to you. So many soldiers meet with accidents at railway stations. It is exceedingly strange that his letters should be here, and no enquiry made for them. Every letter to us said he would see us soon.

I am sure his father who is Deputy Mayor of St John's, Newfoundland, would wish us to inquire at this length of time.

Trusting you may be able to relieve our anxiety,

I am

Yours sincerely
