Dear Sir:- #4756, Pte. Jas. Malley

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of Jan. 26th, requesting that the above mentioned soldier might be returned to this country.

Your position without the help of your son is fully appreciated, but it is regretted that as military requirements in France and occupied Germany still calls for a large number of troops, our 1st Battalion with whom this soldier is now serving is still required to do duty; and it is therefore, impossible just at this time to have your boy returned.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Col.,

Chief Staff Officer.
