6174, Pte Clifford Nolan

With reference to the attached correspondence covering the above named soldier.

I have investigated into the circumstances of this man's enlistment in the Regiment and find as follows:-

Private Nolan is 19 years of age and was attested in the ordinary manner on September 23rd, 1918. He was granted exemption on Ground "D" and certificate was issued to him on August 1st/18; but towards the latter part of August he received a "Report for Service" form calling him up on October 15th. He said that he had heard that there had been similar cases in his district where men already holding exemption certificates had also received Report for Service Forms ~~xxxx~~ and he thought that, for some reason or other, the exemption had been cancelled. He reported to Dr. Hogan for Medical examination and came on to St. John's and was duly sworn in in the ordinary way.
