Mrs. James Colbourne,
Lush's Bight

Dear Madam:-

In reply to your letter of 23rd July, I have to state the following facts for your information:

When No. 2425, Private Levi Normore enlisted, he gave Mrs. Dinah Normore of Cutwell Hr., Long Island as his mother and next of kin. The report that Private Normore was missing April 14th, 1917 was notified to her on May 13th, 1917, and a later report that he was believed killed in action on April 14th was sent to her on Nov. 7th

This soldier's estate is now in the hands of the Minister of Justice awaiting Administration Papers. The estate is, so far as is at present known, to be administered to Mrs. Dinah Normore. No personal effects of this soldier have yet been received, but when they have eventually come to hand, they will be sent to Mrs. Dinah Normore.

In view of your letter which raised the question of your claim to the estate of Private Levi Normore, it might be advisable if you communicated with a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace in your district to prove your claim; the matter will then have to be taken up by the Dept. of Justice

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Col.,

Chief Staff Officer

July 23rd 1918

Lieut. R. Wendell.

Sir I am writing you
 A statement of my son Levi Normore who was reported missing in April 14th 1917 Now as we have not seen any report of his death on the papers I would like to know if there is still hopes of him being alive, if so please let me know & if he is believed to be dead let me know who has his money & property as I am his mother & the nearest kin he has. I am determined to have my sons property if law will give it to me

Would it not be very strange for someone who is no kin at all to claim my sons property.

Now I must tell you about my son Levi. his name is really & truly Levi Carava<sup>n</sup> but when a small boy when I married James Colbourn I had to put him out for peace as James had boys of his own well Mr John Varmore wanted to adopt him as his own son & to call him by their name. but I was not satisfied for him to have his name any other then Levi Carava<sup>n</sup> what he was & baptised by Rev. Mr. Russell of Ed<sup>to</sup> 28 years ago. neither did we have any writings of any sort only the word of mouth that if they treat him fairly I would not trouble them until he wou<sup>ld</sup> be 21 years of age & out of his time. Well as I did not live on the same Island as the Stormors it was very seldom that I saw him until he was of age. John Stormore died some time after he took my boy it may have been a year more or less.

 but the report was that the family was trying to make him disown me as his mother. well after he was 21 years old he left the Normores & went to Cape Britten & spent a year or two away & then he came back and settled down on this island he left Sunday Cove island but he did not live with Mrs Normore nor her son either but he boarded with Mrs Short & built an house for himself he had nothing to do with the Normore property after he became of age, I trust that Leves Money will be redance until you you are sure that he is not only missing but that he is 5 really dead for the Karmors do not care whether he is dead or alive if they can get his money & property they will be glad., but. just think, is it not worth A thought for me to ~~be~~ loose my son and all he has. and then to see strangers enjoying my poor boys goods any parent in A sane state would see the wrong in it hoping that you will try and do all that you can for me to obtain my rights of my sons money and property as I remaine.

Dear Sir.

I beg to advise that your letter of May 30th addressed to me and containing cheque for $66.98 as balance of estate late Private L. Hoernmore is an error.

The error occurred in this way. You mistook the name Mrs James Colbourne for Mrs Jane Colbourne. So the cheque came to me instead of to Mrs James Colbourne who is Administratrix of the estate of late Private L. Hoernmore.

I am enclosing cheque & letter herewith. I have taken hd of same.

Kindly correct this error and make out cheque to Mrs James Colbourne and forward to her at once!

Sorry she is any way inconvenienced by this.

Dear Sirs

I am in receipt of a letter from P. H. Sumner, Deputy Minister of Justice dated May 26th 1919 in which he informs me that he has authorized you to pay the amt. of $66.78 which was due the Estate of the late # 2425 Levi Normore to me his mother. I may say however that this amt. has not reached me but a similar amount has been received by Mrs. Herbert Colbourne of this place and is evidently the money intended for me as it states that it is due the Estate of Levi Normore.
Mrs. Herbert Colbourne however refuses to give me the money and I would ask you to kindly see to the matter at once as there is no doubt of an error being made by your Dept. in sending it to her.

Yours Sincerely

Lieutenant J. M. Howly

Dear sir

I would be greatly obliged if you would give me the little information I crave concerning my brother, Private Levi Hornore No. 2425 who was missing in the battle of April 14th 1917 and is since reported killed in action. The information I crave is this is Private Levi Hornore pay continued since he was killed, if so who receives his pay, and how much, how long does it continue to be paid, and is it the whole of his wages is paid or half. I have no knowledge of this matter & as his relative would like to know, my mother seem to know nothing of it either.

I am not asking this out of selfish motives, my reason is this, I was considering the possibility of erecting a monument to his memory and I thought that if his pay was continued someone was receiving it, and if so perhaps they would be in a better position to do this work than I am. Hoping I am not asking to much I am Yours very truly

Dear Madam,

Referring to your letter of March,

It was formerly deposited in the Bank of Montreal here in the joint names of Levi Normore and his sister Mrs. A. Hewitt, but owing to the fact, that Mrs. Hewitt cannot be considered to be dependent upon him it was discontinued when he was reported Killed in Action.

His sister may be able to give you some information regarding it.
