a hurriedly written letter. I immediately wrote him advising not to deliver the letter as I was writing to you personally and in a proper manner. Unfortunately my letter did not reach him in time.

My reason for explaining myself thusly is that I have placed an application for a Commission in the hands of Lieut - Col. Whittaker and I am afraid of the above action having an adverse effect.

Believe me,
Yours, respectfully,

At any rate when I considered the matter calmly - after the train had gone - I felt I had done wrong in sending such a
