Dear Sir:-

Sept. 17th 1918.

I received with thanks a communication from the Military Authorities regarding the two Pardy young men now at St. John's Headquarters. Understanding was given then that when their illness was over my request for the consideration of their case because of their father's old age and feebleness and these two being his only support would be granted. I think now they have resumed Military Duties again .

Will you kindly give the matter your careful consideration at your earliest convenience?

Yours gratefully,

Dear Sir:

If it be possible to permit Reuben Pardy # 5168 to return to his parents, it will be the means of relieving the nearby friends of a serious responsibility. Mr. Pardy is 77 years of age, and has his wife and two small children depending on him, and is altogether unfit to face the winter without some help in the home.

I can assure you there is no objection on his part to the M. S. A. but that his plea that one son - preferably Reuben - be returned is solely that he and his family be given protection.

If you will give it immediate attention, it will greatly relieve them.

Any other particulars you need or form you desire filled in, I shall gladly forward upon request.
