I enclose cheque for $338.67 representing retroactive Separation Allowance payable to the wife of the late Pte. M. J. Ross, of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, a time-expired man, who, after his discharge, was killed on Bell Island.

I endeavoured to get in touch with Mrs. Ross, in order to have her present her Marriage Certificate, and the enclosed reply is the one received by me to an inquiry which I made concerning her present whereabouts. In view of the circumstances of which the writer of the letter speaks, do you think it possible to have at least a portion of this amount transferred to Mrs. Heary, for the benefit of Ross's child.

Dear Sir
In reply to your favor of Jan'y 9th last re present whereabouts of Mrs Michael J. Ross, widow of Capt. Gen.
J. Ross, I wish to say that nothing is known about her here beyond a general rumour that she has since been married and lives somewhere on the North Shore of Conception Bay.
I would strongly recommend that some of this money be commended given to Mrs Francis Neary of this place. This noble woman gave her two (only ones) <sup>sons</sup> to the cause,

And when John Ross's wife went of as "a vagabond" Mrs. Newby had the onus of bringing up his son's child, and is now struggling with hard times. A very poor reward indeed for the noble sacrifice she has made.

They to remain
Very sincerely
T. J. Gough, R. J.

Rev. Fr. Gough,
Portugal Cove.

Dear Sir:-

You will, no doubt, remember my speaking to you about a payment of Separation Allowance on account of the late Michael J. Ross, and your statement to the effect that the child had been for some time in the care of its grandmother.

It has been suggested that the cheque be forwarded to you with a request that it be used to the best interests of the child, but as the child is dead, it appears to be most reasonable that the amount should go to Mrs Heary, to reimburse her for any expenses she may have incurred whilst the child was in her care.

I am therefore enclosing a cheque for $338.67, which is the total amount due, and I shall be obliged if you will turn it over to Mrs Heary, in such manner as you think fit.

Yours truly,

July 20, 1916.

Dear Madam,

It was with extreme regret that the Government received a cablegram from the Record Office, London, intimating that your son, Private Michael Joseph Bass, had been reported as killed in action, no date, however, of which was given.

Permit me to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We feel the loss of our loved ones but it will be some consolation to you to think that your brave boy early answered the Call of King and Country, did his part nobly and fell, facing the foe, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. We are proud of our gallant boys and also of the noble fathers and mothers who so willingly gave their sons when the Call of Duty came. Though your boy has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory and his name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. When the victory is won and Peace again reigns upon this earth, it will be a comforting thought to you that, in this glorious achievement, your boy bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the Grace and consolation of the Great Father of us all at this time.

With deep sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,
