Dear Sir

I am writing you these few lines to enquire, if you could possibly give me any news regarding one of your soldiers by the name of William Short. This lad served on Gallipoli & was wounded again in France.

I myself am a soldier of the New Zealand forces & it was during my stay in England I became acquainted with him. I came back to my home here without seeing him & lost his address. I know how busy you are kept at your office but I am sure you will try & oblige me, & if you could possibly find any trace of him would you please let him have the envelope which is enclosed.

I remain
