Dear Freddie

Received your letter of Oct. 3/17 and have noted contents. We have word that we sail for India, on Tuesday, from Devonport. We leave here on Monday. I have instructed Thos. Cook & Son to transfer my account to their Bombay branch on the 15th Oct. so this will give you time to square up my account and place the balance to my credit with them before they transfer it to Bombay. Your last letter is addressed as Lieut. I do not know whether this is correct or not, so I wired you yesterday about it. My reason for so doing being that it makes a difference to my pay on the way out if I have got my second pip. Thanks so much for the many things done by you for me. Give my kind regards to your wife and the baby and keep enough for yourself.

Yours Sincerely,
H. Sticks.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 7th October 1918, No. 16102/3/P & A. I am directed to inform you that according to information received from the War Office Lieut. L. T. Stick embarked for India on 11th October 1917, on appointment as a probationer for the Indian Army Reserve of Officers, and the Government of India have therefore correctly issued pay from that date. His pay from the Newfoundland Contingent should therefore be issued up to and including the 10th October 1917.
