Dear Sir.

I am about to make
a request from you.

I have been invalided to England from the front & am now in hospital suffering from shock.

I am improving & the doctor allows me to go out.

I am as you doubtless know in

Sir

I am again writing to you regarding the money which is due to me.

I wrote a fortnight ago but evidently that has either been ignored or has not reached you.

I am in hospital, but am now able to get out a little. You will of course be able to form a vague idea how I am financially placed, it is making things rather awkward for me.

very much indeed.

I have expected being discharged from hospital for this past few days, but this has been cancelled owing to my condition.

Doubtless you will know what amount of money I am in credit; isn't it at all possible for me to have that or even part of it forwarded to me?

Trusting you may be able to do

I should thank you if you could extend (277 pts to J. S. Lewisohn) Furlough, as the few days
he has had seems to have greatly improved his nervous debility.

But owing to the raid the other night he had a severe nervous attack, & I feel sure a few more days would make him fit again.

I should thank you for a wire
by return.
