Major Montgomery,

Dear Sir

Re Pte Leo Wall, No. 5808

F'Co. In your letter to me, dated October 30th-1918 you tell me you were advised by the officer Commanding Depot that my son Leo Wall proceeded abroad without making any allotment to me and that no Separation allowance could be considered for me until this would be done by him. But you informed me the Department had cabled the other side asking them to see that my son make the allowance to me and that you would advise me immediately on receipt of the reply.

I have been expecting to hear from you ere this and as I am not in good circumstances at present to meet the hardships of the approaching winter, I would be obliged to you to take up the matter and have it passed upon, in some way, satisfactorily to me. My son should be counselled to do what is just and right to contribute to the support of his parents even if far away from their oversea.

Yours sincerely
Mrs. Elizabeth Wall,
Newtown,
Stoke Newington.

This soldier proceeded abroad with draft leaving here August 22nd. His mother has made application for Separation Allowance, and claims that her son told her that he intended to make an allotment in her favor. There is no record of such allotment having been made and I have had a cable despatched through the Record Officer asking that this be done and advice sent here so that the question of Separation Allowance can be decided.

I note your explanation and have ~~explained~~ other side asking them to see that your son makes the necessary allotment and will advise you immediately upon receipt of a reply. I have also instructed the Paymaster to forward the necessary form upon which claim for Separation allowance is made.

I enclose communication from the mother of this soldier relative to Separation Allowance.

It would appear that he desired to make an allotment, but that through no fault of his own, this was not done before leaving. I have wired the Chief Paymaster in order to have the matter straightened out, and in the meantime, will you please forward the necessary forms to his mother so that they can be completed.

Dear Sir

Two months ago I made application through your office for a Separation allowance on account of my son Private Leo Wall, Reg. No. 5808 F Company Royal N. F. Company. But I am sorry to inform you I have received no reply whatever from the Separation allowance office on this business urgent to me. My son sailed overseas on the 22nd of September last and he has advised me that when his Companion Soldiers were making their allotments on the Saturday before leaving, he was absent at the Cook House. He however requested me to write to the office and ask you to send me his half pay for the month of October. So I am again making application through you for the Separation allowance and also his half pay for October, and I humbly request you to take up the matter with the proper authorities and have either or both forwarded me his mother as promptly as possible. I am truly in need of some assistance now made, by Cable gram, an allotment of $8.60cks or 60cks per day to me.

I have been instructed by Major Montjornie the question of Separation allowance could not be considered, until

My son had made an allotment. And as he has done this it ought to open the door to a Separation allowance for me. There are three parties here receiving Separation Allowances who are in no worse circumstances than I am and I therefore appeal to your Excellency to take up for me, the matter of having a Separation Allowance granted to me and to use your influence in behalf of a poor crippled woman like me.

I have the honor to be,

Your Excellency's obedient servant,

Mrs. Elizabeth Wall
Stokelywood.

is not wholly incapacitated.

For your information I would add there are three parties here receiving Separation Allowances who are no better or no worse in infirmity or disability than my husband.

I would thank you to forward me, a poor crippled woman, the necessary form including the doctor's Certificate form to make a new application.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

I have received your letter of January 21st last and the contents of which I can assure you are very much disappointing to me, upon my statement and in the absence of a doctor's Certificate you very slightly handedly set aside my claim to the Separation allowance. What I understood by a chronic invalid when I made out my application some months ago was a person all the time sick and laid up and unable to do any work, at all.

I was advised by Major Montgomery on October 30th last that my son Pte Leo Wall No. 5808 proceeded abroad without making any allotment and until this had been done the question of Separation allowance could not be considered. And now that he has made an allotment of $18.60 per month to me there is still ~~another~~

Dear Sir,

My Son

Leo Wall joined his Majesty's Forces in July. His father Martin Wall is an old man now, over 60 years old and getting past his doing hard work. He Leo is the only son now living with us. I have another son living apart from us who is married and has a large family of his own to support.

I am his mother, and I feel it keenly to part with our only single son and our main support. I am then to make application to you for a Separation Allowance to recompense me for the loss I have sustained through his joining his Majesty's forces. Yours Sincerely, Elizabeth Wall
mother of Leo Wall
