Attention of Hon.W.B.Grieve

Gentlemen:-

I have been directed to approach you with a view to obtain certain information with regard to one George Waddleton, Seaman, who was supposed to have left St.John's four years ago in one of your vessels. It appears from information to hand the vessel was lost and the crew landed at New York. Among them was Waddleton.

The last information that can be received regarding Waddleton is that he was left in a Bar in New York, too drunk to accompany his shipmates home, since then nothing whatever has been heard of him.

Will you kindly let me know if you have any information to verify the foregoing statements; and also, if under the circumstances your Firm has made any provision for the wife.

An early reply will greatly oblige

Yours very truly,

Ha Jor
