With reference to the above Soldier's claim for Separation Allowance in favour of his wife: It is observed that the regulation regarding allotment of 50 cents per day of the Soldier's pay in favour of his wife, has not been complied with.

His allotment of 30 cents per day in favour of John White, Father, Twillingate, has been cancelled from 21/2/18 and a new allotment of 50 cents per day put into force in favour of his wife.

N.F's P 11 & 12 are enclosed for completion and return in confirmation of this action.

Major,
Chief Paymaster & O i/c Records.

Dear Mr. Marshall,

Since January last I have sent to Nfld. for money at three different times, twice I received the amount sent for, Five Pounds, but the second last time I sent I did not get the money nor has it come to hand up to the present. I have had letters from home & they mention the money & say it has been sent.

I would like to know if it is by any mistake still at the bank & Record Office & been guaranteed by the Lands there, both amounts which I received were by Draft & came through your Office.

Should you at your convenience kindly look into this matter & greatly oblige,

Yours truly,

Sir

I wrote you some time ago enquiring about transportation to Newfoundland & received papers from you regarding same, but, owing to illness I have been unable to attend to business of any sort.

I now have these papers (including passport) ready to return to you, but I am first wishing to know regarding my two children.
These children are of my first marriage, and are aged 11 years & 14 years respectively.

They are, therefore, (with me) dependents of my husband. Please let me know what is done in this case.

Thanking you in anticipation
I am

Dear Sir.

On the 6th inst. I received a cheque for $42-50.
with an intimation that this was my final "Gratuity" payment.
As I had over four years service with the Regt. I expected to be paid the usual Gratuity in full. but it would seem that the longer ones service may be the worse he is treated
I had to go to St Johns for my first two payments, paying my own expenses & I have had to write twice since then.
It seems to me it should not be necessary, since my name is on the Pay Roll. Added to this, my wife has never received any gratuity money whatever & she can get no reply to her letters. I am writing you direct in the hope that you will have this put right.
